

PRESS RELEASE
NORTHWEST SENIOR SERVICES ADVISORY BOARD
SEPTEMBER 22, 2016

The Board of County Commissioners is seeking applicants to complete a term on the Northwest Senior Services Advisory Board for a term that runs until June 30, 2018.

The Northwest Senior Services Advisory Board is part of the Northwest Regional Council which serves as the Area Agency on Aging for Island, San Juan, Skagit and Whatcom Counties. It plans services for seniors and people with disabilities who need assistance caring for themselves and relies heavily on input and assistance from a dedicated group of volunteers. NWSSAB members come from different age groups and diverse backgrounds and are generally active members of their communities. Anyone with an interest in long-term care issues is welcome to apply.

Board meetings occur on the third Thursday of most months, with exceptions during the summer and holidays, and are usually held in Anacortes or Bellingham. Applicants for the current position must be residents of Island County.

The application deadline is October 21, 2016 and an application may be obtained by contacting Pam Dill, (360) 679-7353 or by email at pamd@co.island.wa.us Additional information regarding the committee may be obtained by contacting Pat Elwell at 360-676-6749 ext 1024 or by email at elwelpf@dshs.wa.gov
